When two or more members raise their hands to speak, the chairman shall designate the member who has the floor and that member shall be the member who, in the opinion of the chairman, first raised his or her hand.
26. No Councillor shall speak more than twice on any motion except to explain a misconception of his or her remarks; however, the mover of a substantive motion shall have the right to speak a third time, if necessary, to reply and sum up in closing the debate.

33. Any such councillor may speak on his or her own behalf in relation to any such censure being appealed to Council, but the Councillor shall withdraw from the Council Chambers before the Council proceeds to consider and vote on the matter.

Points of Order

34. The chairman shall, and any councillor may, call to order any councillor who violates any rule of order.
35. When a councillor speaks to a point of order, the question of order shall be decided before the matter under discussion is proceeded with, and when any councillor is called to order he or she shall take his seat until the point of order is determined.
36. The chairman shall decide on points of order and the chairman may make a decision immediately or may permit debate on the point of order before making a decision.
37. The decision of the chairman may be challenged by a motion from the floor, which must be duly seconded, to dissent from the ruling of the chair. Such a motion is not debatable and the chairman shall forthwith put the question in this manner "Shall the decision of the chair be sustained?".

38. If the question does not receive majority support, the ruling of the chairman on the point is not sustained and is overturned.

Amendments

45. (a) An amendment must be relevant to the subject matter of the motion under debate and no amendment shall be allowed which, in the opinion of the chairman, has the effect of nullifying the motion under debate.
- (b) An appeal shall lie to the members of the Council from any decision of the chairman on the relevancy or acceptance of an amendment and the appeal shall be handled similarly to an appeal of the chairman's decision on a point of order.
46. Each amendment, when properly on the floor, shall be decided or withdrawn before the main question is put to a vote.
47. No more than two amendments, consisting of an amendment and a subamendment shall be received by the chairman or considered by Council at any one time.

48. The chairman shall make all efforts to clarify the wording being voted on when Council is ready to vote on a subamendment, an amendment and then the main motion.

Resume Consideration

49. A motion to resume consideration shall be in order when a matter comes up on the agenda as a result of being earlier referred from the floor of Council to be studied by a board or committee or staff member or members.

Reconsideration

50. After a question has been decided, whether in the affirmative or the negative, and after the decision has been announced from the chair any member of the Council may give notice that he or she will move a reconsideration of the question at the next meeting of that body.

53. A motion to reconsider shall not be debatable except that the member who gave the notice of motion to reconsider has the privilege of stating his reasons for doing so.
54. Any question shall not be reconsidered more than once; nor shall a vote on a motion to reconsider be reconsidered.

Notice of Motion

55. Verbal notice of motion should be made at a meeting if a member is intending to bring up an important or complicated matter for discussion at the next meeting of the same body.

56. If such verbal notice of motion is made, that member shall provide a written copy of the notice of motion to the Clerk on the day that the verbal notice of motion is made so as to provide staff adequate time to prepare any background material which might be useful in the deliberations of Council and so that the items may be properly described on the agenda for the next meeting.
57. As an alternative to the procedure in sections 55 and 56, a written notice of motion may be initiated between meetings on the condition that it be mailed to each councillor at least five (5) days before the next meeting of the body to which it will be presented.
58. When a member is absent from a meeting for which he or she has previously given a notice of motion, such motion may be taken up by any other member at that meeting and that other member may make a motion in accordance with the notice of motion.
59. (a) A motion in the case of urgent and pressing necessity may be added to the Agenda of Council at the time of Approval of the Agenda, without previous debate or notice being given only by the unanimous consent of the Councillors present.

(b) When a member's notice of motion has been called for from the chair at two successive meetings and has not been proceeded with, it shall be dropped from the agenda, and deemed to have been withdrawn, unless Council otherwise decides.
