Congratulations to Shannon MacPhee and Jaymie Young

We would like to acknowledge Shannon MacPhee, who has been nominated and chosen as one of the recipients of the 2024 Provincial Volunteer Award. Additionally, we want to recognize Jaymie Young, who was nominated in the youth category. Their dedication to volunteer work and their passion for supporting our community have been truly exemplary and inspiring!

A Moment with the Mayor:

Council and Staff

The Town of Stewiacke welcomed our new CAO Marc Seguin on June 17th. Helen Young was hired as the new Financial Manager. Welcome Helen.

Infrastructure

Riverside Avenue complete refit continues with a completion date later this fall.

Community News

The Stewiacke Community Garden Grand opening took place in July and is a welcome addition to our town.

Acknowledgement

I want to take this time to thank the employees of our town and council members I had the privilege to serve during my time as Mayor. I sincerely appreciate your service.

What I've Been up to

I attended the 80th Anniversary of the Stewiacke Fire Department & presented a plaque of appreciation on behalf of the Town Council. I represented the Town of Stewiacke @ the FCM in Calgary June 5 – 10th with Deputy Mayor Roseanne Chapman & Councillor Osborne & the Nova Scotia Volunteer awards in Truro. Shannon MacPhee was named volunteer of the year for the Town of Stewiacke. Congratulations Shannon.

This is my final report as Mayor. I will swear in the Mayor elect Doug Glasser in October. It is my sincere hope the new Council will govern as a cohesive elective body in the best interest of our town going forward.

It has been my privilege to represent our town for the past four years.

George Lloy
